POTENTIAL EARNINGS

When we say uncapped commission potential, we really mean it. You're earning money for every hour a contractor is on the job.

So what does that look like when you're first getting started?

We followed a group of our account executives and recruiters during their first three years with Black Diamond. This is how their earnings grew during that time.

WHAT YOU CAN EARN

Note: these numbers include base salary and commission. They show the highest, lowest, and average salaries earned during a group of employees' first three years with Black Diamond.
